SBC FD responded four engines and a battalion chief to the scene. First arriving firefighters found a Volkswagen van on fire in a carport attached to a barn. There were also reports of small explosions prior to the firefighter's arrival to the scene. The van was fully engulfed by the fire. The fire also spread into the barn and surrounding grass area. Firefighters were able to quickly knockdown the fire at 12:24pm and prevent further damage to the barn. There were no injuries. The cause of the fire is under investigation.
